

How does it work?

The process is simple. Fill out the form inside. Then on the Thursday you select, materials are delivered right to you.

Are there fees involved?

There are no fees involved to join; not even late fees.

Who can use this service?

Anyone within the Kewanee Public Library District who is confined to their home may request up to 25 books at a time.

How do I sign up?

Simply make sure your library card is current and return this form. If you do not have a library card and live within the library district, we can come to you to collect the information we need.
